

DUFFY'S NEW TRIAL AS GRAFT COLLECTOR ON BEFORE SEABURY

District Attorney Whitman
Takes Charge of the Prosecution—Selecting the Jury.

Justice Seabury, in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, to-day began the trial of Police Sergeant Peter J. Duffy, alleged graft collector.

for former Inspector Dennis Sweeney in the Harlem district. Duffy is accused of accepting $50 from Julius Roth, a gambling house keeper in West One Hundred and Eighteenth street, as protection money.

A special panel of one hundred talesmen was called. At the former trial of Duffy before Justice Goff more than two days was spent in obtaining jurors. One of the twelve men selected, Harry J. Whaley, No. 55 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, disagreed with the others, the jury standing eleven to one for conviction when it was discharged.

District Attorney Whitman will conduct the prosecution of Duffy in the new trial. He will be assisted by Assistant District Attorneys Nott and Clark, who prosecuted at the first trial. The evidence against Duffy will be given by Roth, a number of his employees and ex-Policeman Eugene L. Fox, who turned State's evidence when arrested for "shaking down" Ralston in his hotel proprietors in Sweeney's district. Fox has testified that Duffy succeeded him in the collection of graft from gamblers and saloon-keepers in part of Sweeney's district last July immediately after the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Abraham Levy, counsel for Duffy, said to-day he had secured considerable new evidence that would count materially for the benefit of his client.

Two jurors were secured during the morning session. When recess was taken Justice Seabury ordered Duffy taken to the Tombs, thus ending his bond of $5,000. The jurors were placed in the custody of two court attendants and taken to a nearby hotel for lunch. Justice Goff on the first trial of Duffy allowed him his freedom until the jury was selected.

Early in the afternoon three more jurors were chosen. They were Albert

M. Trinchet, dealer in silks at No. 39 West Houston street, residence No. 356 Teller avenue, the Bronx; James H. Greenhart, auto supply dealer at No. 58 Maiden lane, residence No. 45 East One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street; Harry H. Robby, designer, residence No. 217 East Thirty-eighth street.

EAST INDIAN PRINCE HELD UP AT ELLIS ISLAND.

Came Here in the Steamer on a Mission to Cure Cancer and Other Troubles.

When the White Star liner Oceanic arrived in port on Saturday, the immigration officials found that one of the steerage passengers, a well built young man of nineteen years and armed in the robes of East India, did not have the $25 necessary for his permission to land. Then it was found that in reality the detained steerage passenger in Prince Mallicetty Zankata Rao of East India.

The Prince had been attending a university in England and determined to come to this country "for the benefit of mankind," as he expressed it, being a "psychic-occult scientist."

"I can cure people of almost everything," said he to-day. "I have cured cancer and I can cure the city officials and make them work. I can cure lovers and everybody else. Of course my family, which is wealthy, will send me the necessary money and then I can land and be of benefit to mankind."

CHILD VICTIM OF PEDDLER.

Nettie Tanahrow, a pretty five-year-old child of No. 166 Attorney street, is in a precarious condition in Bellevue Hospital, while all the detectives of the Seventeenth Precinct are searching this afternoon for an unidentified pushcart peddler who lured the child into the cellar at No. 166 Attorney street, attacked her and left her unconscious. She was taken to Bellevue.

When she had revived sufficiently she described to Sergeant Pfister, of the Union Market detectives, her assailant, she said he was about five feet six inches in height and had a red mustache and hair. Other children in the neighborhood added to the description, upon which a general alarm was sent out.

A Specimen Value from Macy's new and much improved Men's Haverdasher Shop, now on the Main Floor, Broadway, at 35th St.

This offering consists of twenty-one hundred of the smartest and most desirable heavy tubsilk shirts that we have seen this season.

But the word "silk" is not the whole story. There are $5.00 and $6.00 "silk" shirts around New York that are skimpy in material, badly cut, worse finished and of entirely haphazard proportions.

Macy's Silk Shirts at $2.59 are perfect in cut, fit and finish, and are proportioned with extreme care to keep the correct relations between sleeve, chest, girth, neck and length.

The shirts are all coat model, all have the popular soft "French" double cuffs, and are in neck sizes 13½ to 18, with choice of 34 inch and 35 inch sleeve lengths to each neck size.

The colorings are in narrow, wide and extra wide stripes in quiet, yet rich tones of tan, helio, blue and gray upon white grounds. Main Floor, 35th St.
